"I was immediately drawn to the cute label... light, crisp... a definite summer staple"
Maggie Robert (Babes XO)

The Royal Gazette

"A package design and contents to be so perfect for our island...crafted from a blend of Grenache, Cinsault and Syrah that together show great aromatic freshness along with subtle fruity notes. There are many good matches... or just sip it."

Michael Robinson (The Royal Gazette Bermuda)

WINEFULLNESS

"The color is a delicate pink that intrigues and this accompanied by notes of red fruit gently kissing tropical fruits" - Tony Harries (Winefullness)

A new release from the Château d'Esclans in Provence, this is full of ripe fruits and red-currant flavors. The wine's richness gives it some intensity that brings a tang. It is ready to drink
- Roger Voss

Majesticwine

"The Beach By Whispering Angel's mission statement reflects the love and care in each bottle while protecting our planet with a commitment to sustainability and the preservation of our beaches... packaged in a light-weight bottle bearing and eco-friendly... label... elegant and refreshing"
Majestic Wine

"Whispering Angel is known for being an amazing rosé, but the brand's The Beach spinoff is a must-try. The Coteaux d'Aix-en-Provence wine is inspired by tropical flavors but it also celebrates the brand's commitment to sustainability and beach preservation. The baby pink color matches its subtle yet satisfying flavor, and the packaging itself is Instagram-worthy. The Beach wine is overwhelmingly fresh with light notes of melon, lemon, and berry flavors. It's slightly acidic with a medium body but it definitely sits on the dry end of the rosé spectrum. "Light, dry version of Whispering Angel's rose," one TotalWine customer wrote in a review.

Excellent with food or by itself. Purchased as a trial and am now heading out to buy more. The consensus among customers seems to be that Whispering Angel is the blend you drink all-year-round while The Beach is the ultimate summer-weather rosé." - Alex Darus
